FOOD DISTRIBUTION FOR NEEDY DURING PANDEMIC

08/05/2020

Corona pandemic has turned life upside down for many. To help the poor people and workers, whose incomes have taken a huge hit due to Covid-19, the college, as part of its community outreach programme, has been actively involved in social service activities, took the lead again to distribute free food and ration to a large number of people in the surrounding areas who were badly hit by the pandemic.

This was formally inaugurated by Lord Diljit Singh Rana, Chairman and Ms. Urmil Verma, Trustee, Cordia Group. “We are doing our bit for the society. Our goal is to help the underprivileged and downtrodden”, said Lord Rana while distributing ration kits to the support staff of the college. Each ration kit for a family of contained flour, rice, cooking oil, pulses and other items of daily use that can last for a week. Ms. Urmil Verma said that the initiative of not letting anyone sleep without food is a very small effort on our part that we could do to repay to the society and nation.
